2011 FEA State Conference & Competitions

Over 440 students and 100 guests attended the 2011 FEA State Conference on March 3-4, 2011 at Grand Canyon University. Key note speakers included Amanda McAdams, 2011 Teacher of the Year; Jeanne Storm, FEA National Director & Dr. Kimberly LaPrade, Dean of the College of Education at Grand Canyon University. The theme of this year's conference was "Teachers Rock!" Over 350 students competed in over 20 competitions to demonstrate their skills in a variety of skills related to the teaching profession. In addition, there were 25 breakout sessions provided for the students providing insight to several areas of education. A wealth of resources and materials were provided from the presenters who demonstrate "best practice" in their fields of expertise. In addition, the conference held a variety show displaying the talent of students and staff as well as the first "FEA Olympics" where schools had an opportunity to demonstrate their skills in collaboration & team work.
